

SEAN CLARK NAMED PRINCIPAL OF EUFAULA HIGH SCHOOL

Eufaula, AL, December 18, 2018 – Sean Clark has been named principal of Eufaula High School by the Board of Education. Mr. Clark has worked in Ozark City Schools for the past 9 and a half years. He has been principal of Carroll High School for the past three and a half years. His tenure in Ozark also includes being an elementary school principal and high school assistant principal. He began his education career in Baldwin County Schools and has taught history and special education. Prior to teaching, Clark served in the United States Air Force.

Mr. Clark completed his Bachelor of Science degree at Troy University in political science/military science and from the University of West Alabama a Master of Science in instructional leadership, a Master of Science in special education and an Education Specialist degree also in instructional leadership.

Mr. Clark stated, “Eufaula High School has a rich history of success both academically and athletically. I am excited about the opportunity to build on the accomplishments of retiring principal Steve Hawkins. The academic academies are an area I am familiar with and would like to grow. I look forward to being in Eufaula and to the future.”

Interim superintendent, Mrs. Deltonya Warren, stated, “Mr. Clark has a proven track record and experienced great success at Carroll High School. There is no doubt that our students, teachers, parents, and community will benefit from his skill set and ability.”

Mr. Joey Brannan, superintendent of Eufaula City Schools starting January 3, 2019, stated, “Mr. Clark is a true instructional leader. He will be a great asset to Eufaula High School.”

Clark and wife, Meg, who is also an educator, have two children—Russ (an eleventh grader) and Teddy (a ninth grader).
