2. Delegations/Awards

A. School Board Member Recognition Month

January marks the 32nd annual observance of School Board Member Recognition Month in Alabama. AASB is encouraging communities throughout the state to help celebrate local school board members for their commitment to high-quality public education for all of Alabama's students.

School board members are building a better future for students every day. This year's theme, "Building Tomorrow's Future," highlights the role board members play in shaping the foundation of public education in Alabama through their committed leadership, guidance and decision-making.

Each school has presented a video thanking the board over the past four months.
