Emily Jackson, Principal

Eufaula High School and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards. This school-parent compact is in effect during school year 2025-2026

School Responsibilities

Eufaula High School will:

Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

- Provide high quality evidence-based instruction combined with meaningful assessments and intervention in areas of weakness enabling the student to meet state performance standards;
- Provide an environment conducive to learning;
- Provide opportunities for students to demonstrate mastery;
- Integrate special activities, when feasible, to make learning enjoyable;
- Staff our school with state certified teachers to the greatest extent possible.

Hold parent-teacher conferences during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.

- Parent conferences will be held as needed and may be requested by the teacher, parent, student, or school administration.

Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress.

- Provide information about the student's progress and school activities through weekly newsletters, bulletins, school website and progress reports every 4.5 week and 9 weeks.
- Provide parents online access to their child's progress daily, via Schoology and PowerSchool.

Provide parents reasonable access to staff.

- Provide parents reasonable access to staff (i.e. parent conferences) before school, during planning time or after school by appointment.

Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

- Encourage parental engagement in education through various school sponsored workshops, opportunities to volunteer, classroom observations, or assistance with class events at times that are convenient to parents and teachers

Ensure regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.

- Conferences can be held before school, after school, and during teachers' planning times in a language the family member understands using an interpreter or Language Line when needed.
- Personal contact will be made via phone calls and emails in a language the family member understands.
- Parent and Family Engagement nights.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Actively encourage and stay involved in what our child is learning to support academic performance;
- Support discipline policies of the classroom and school;
- Be responsible for our child's school attendance and punctuality;
- Stay informed about our child's education by promptly reading, signing, and returning all notices from the school or school district in a timely manner;
- Ensure that our child is prepared with all tools necessary for learning each day;
- Maintain a time and provide a place for homework;
- Attend parent and family engagement opportunities and conferences when possible;

Student Responsibilities

I, as a student, will share the responsibility to improve my academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, I will:

- Believe I can and will learn.
- Abide by the district dress code and conduct policies.
- Attend school regularly and on time whether in the school building or virtually.
- Complete school assignments.
- Be responsible for using and maintaining materials and equipment provided by the district.
- Come to school prepared with ALL tools necessary for learning.
- Discuss school activities and lessons with my parents every day and share any notices and information received from school.
